Liturgical Music Service Saturday, May 12

The annual Shabbat morning Service devoted to classical Jewish liturgical music will take place on Saturday, May 12, beginning at 9:15 A.M. Cantor David Lefkowitz will be accompanied by the Synagogue Concert Choir under the direction of Abraham Kaplan, with Neil Robinson at the organ. There will be a reception kiddush immediately following the service.

Included in this special liturgical music service will be the first performance of music for the Torah Service and the Musaf Kedushah which has been transcribed by Cantor Lefkowitz from the manuscript archives of David Nowakowsky, the choirmaster of the Brody Synagogue in Odessa, Russia.

The concept of the Jewish liturgical music service for Shabbat morning was developed by Cantor Lefkowitz to bring to public attention the vast, and largely ignored, treasure of music written for the Jewish liturgy in the last centuries.

"Immortal Music From Previous Generations" is a musically compelling Sabbath morning service sure to delight the congregation. Those of the congregation who are concert goers, and even those who are not, will appreciate the rareness of this musical experience.

This service is dedicated to the memory of Sarah and Samuel Shapiro.

Speak Out For Soviet Jewry! March Sunday, May 6!!

Men's Club invites the congregation and its friends in the community to join with them when they march for Soviet Jewry on Solidarity Sunday, May 6.

Meeting at the Synagogue at 10 A.M. for a fortifying brunch of bagels and coffee and unfurling the new Park Avenue Synagogue banner for the first time, the contingent from our synagogue will join the march, which is sponsored by the Greater New York Conference on Soviet Jewry.

Numbers do count. Past experience has shown that Washington, the Kremlin and even the Soviets Jews, themselves, are aware and are listening. Speak out for our brethren in the Soviet Union. Join the Men's Club on Sunday, May 6 when they march for their fellow Jews trapped in the Soviet Union.

Arnold L. Sabin

Mr. Sabin is a Vice President of the synagogue and a Trustee since 1976. He was honored by the congregation as Hatan Bereshit on Simhat Torah, 1982. That same year the essay he wrote for inclusion in the 100th anniversary Journal was read into the Congressional Record by Congressman Stephen J. Solarz, following his (Solarz) own congratulatory message. From 1978 to 1982, Mr. Sabin also chaired the Synagogue's annual dinner on behalf of the Seminary. He has also served on other synagogue committees over the years.

He is a member of the Seminary's Board of Overseers and has undertaken major campaign responsibility as New York City Area Chairman, a position developed in 1983 to enhance support for the Seminary in the metropolitan area. He is a member of the Seminary's Chancellor's Council, the honor society of Seminary contributors. He established a scholarship at the Cantors Institute in memory of his father, Irving Sabsevitz, and has participated in the modernization of its facilities. For his outstanding service to the Jewish community, he received the Seminary's Louis Marshall Memorial Medal in 1980.

Mr. Sabin is a Founder of Mt. Sinai Medical Center of Greater Miami and serves on the Advisory Board of the Stanley H. and Rita Kaplan Cancer Center of NYU Medical Center. ## Everyone Invited To Supper Before Annual Meeting

The congregation is invited to a festive buffet supper on Thursday, May 24 at 6:30 P.M. which will precede the Annual Meeting of the congregation at 7:30 P.M. This is the 102nd Annual Meeting of Park Avenue Synagogue and we are all invited to celebrate the occasion as guests of the congregation. However, members are asked to call the Synagogue Office if they wish to attend the supper in order to assist in the planning for the evening.

It is at the Annual Meeting that congregants can become better acquainted with their synagogue and better informed on synagogue matters. Rabbi Judah Nadich will install into office the newly elected officers of the congregation, the Board of Trustees and the officers of the "Arms": Sisterhood, Men's Club, Mr. and Mrs. Club, Parents Association and Women's Evening Group. Board Chairman Joel J. Cohen will deliver the Annual Report to the Congregation and Cantor David Lefkowitz will participate in a Memorial Service for those members who died during this past year.

A vibrant synagogue community depends upon the interest of all its congregants in all aspects of synagogue life. Come for supper and stay for the Annual Meeting of YOUR synagogue on May 24 at 6:30 P.M.

May Musings

"For lo the winter is past. The voice of the turtle is heard in the land. . ." The Song of Songs sets the tone for the ever-miraculous rebirth of nature which comes each year. The winds and rains of the cold winter become memories as the green grass and flowers push their way to the surface of the earth and make the world a place of hope and new life once more.

For us Jews May brings two important holidays, Yom Ha-Atzmaut, Israel Independence Day, marking the thirty-sixth anniversary of the emergence of the Jewish State and Lag B'Omer, the 33rd day of the counting of the Omer period between Passover and Shavuot. Both holidays can be commemorated in a number of ways.

Israel's Independence Day and its history since that fateful day can be seen as the sheer victory of the few against the many, the weak against the mighty. Israel's history these past thirty-six years has been a series of confrontations, both military and political, which have tested the future of its citizens each day. Similarly, Lag B'Omer marks the victory of the army of Bar Kochba against the might of Rome. Yet both these events have in common something quite different. We see the State of Israel as a miraculous achievement of the spirit of Israel, and Lag B'Omer is known as the Scholars' Holiday.

For the Jewish People their existence is not sufficient. It must be an existence for a purpose. That purpose is the perpetuation of those great ideals and values which form the basis and foundation of our faith. The quest for knowledge, the passion for social justice, the striving after a higher moral order, the emphasis on the ethical life, all these and more are woven into the fabric of Judaism and constitute the reason for our being. To be in Israel today, to be aware of all the seemingly insurmountable difficulties it faces, and yet to see what it has accomplished and continues to accomplish is to be a witness to the Impossible Dream. During our recent trip we were particularly astonished to see the growth of institutions of higher learning, universities alive with the sounds of tens of thousands of young people who are studying with enthusiasm, optimism and faith in the future.

So if ever we become disheartened over seemingly endless negotiations for peace, over political and military set-backs, both these important celebrations should put things in perspective. If we still observe Lag B'Omer as the Scholars' Holiday and Yom Ha-Atzmaut as a sign of the spiritual resiliency and vitality of Israel, we dare not be discouraged.

-Judah Nadich

Come and Study Pirkei Avot With Rabbi Wechsler Every Shabbat

Traditionally, Jews throughout the world began the study of Pirkei Avot, "The Ethics of the Fathers", after Passover and continued to study this famous tractate of ethical ideas during the six Sabbaths following Passover in preparation for Shavuot, the holiday which celebrates the receiving of the Torah. But with time, the study of Perek became so popular that Jews continued to read and study this short volume weekly throughout the summer until Rosh Hashanah.

The congregation is invited to join in the study of Perek with Rabbi Wechsler every Saturday afternoon at 5 P.M. until Rosh Hashanah. One or two ethical thoughts will be examined each week — in English.

Come and bring your friends. All are welcome!

Shaharit Service To Mark Israel Independence Day

Yom Ha-Atzmaut, Israel Independence Day, is celebrated on the fifth of Iyar, which this year corresponds to Monday, May 7.

Join with your fellow congregants at a joyous Shaharit Service on this day at 7:30 A.M. in the Appleman Chapel, where together we will celebrate the thirty-sixth birthday of the State of Israel, praising God for this wondrous day!

'Our Very Own Service' Planned By Singles

The Park Avenue Synagogue Singles invites ALL singles to join them Friday, May 18 at 8 P.M. for a special Friday evening Service at Park Avenue Synagogue. This service is one in a continuing series of Friday evening Services for singles only which is continuing to grow in popularity.

An Oneg Shabbat follows the Service. Spread the word — and come!

A transcript of the Sherr Lecture, delivered by ABBA EBAN at Park Avenue Synagogue on "The Meaning of Jewish History" is available for the asking. For a copy, please call Rabbi Wechsler's Office, during business hours.

Parents Association Meeting Wednesday, May 16, 8 P.M.

Parents Association invites all parents whose children are enrolled in the Mazer School of Religious Studies to attend the last Open Meeting of this school year on Wednesday, May 16 at 8 P.M.

Mr. Sabin and his wife, Lite, have a daughter, Vivien Jill.

Dr. Charlotte D. Yudell

Dr. Yudell long has been a member of Park Avenue Synagogue and a supporter of the Seminary. Her late husband, Dr. Alexander Richman, a Vice President of the Synagogue and the chairman of the Ritual Committee, was honored by the Synagogue and the Seminary. He also received a testimonial from Mt. Sinai Hospital, where he served as a distinguished member of the faculty.

Dr. Yudell, her husband and two of their daughters, Myra and Beverly, were graduated from New York Medical College. The Charlotte D. Yudell Award was established last year at the college by Myra, Beverly and their sisters Janice, a research scientist at Roswell Park Memorial Institute and at SUNY in Buffalo, and Lesley, a practicing attorney in Houston, Texas. The award is to be given annually to a woman of the graduating class "who best exemplifies Dr. Yudell's high standards of patient care, her pioneering spirit and her social awareness".

Dr. Yudell states that "Judaism is a family affair", referring to the many leadership roles she and the family have undertaken in Jewish congregational and communal life. Myra, Janice and Lesley serve on the boards of their local synagogues. When Beverly, her second oldest daughter, elected to be a Bat Mitzvah in March of this year, Dr. Yudell notes that three generations of her family were present on the bimah. Her four daughters were married at Park Avenue Synagogue.

Dr. Richman, a Hebrew scholar, attended the Seminary's Teacher's Institute and was able to pay his tuition to medical school by teaching Hebrew. When Lesley, the youngest in the family, was to be Bat Mitzvah, Dr. Yudell also studied Hebrew; and three of her daughters took their Regents in Hebrew. Myra was accepted at Vassar offering Hebrew as her modern language. This was very unusual at that time.

The family has been closely associated with the Seminary's Ramah Camps; Myra serving for a time on the New England Ramah Commission. When Dr. Yudell was a resident in psychiatry, Camp Ramah organized a kindergarten group so that 5 year old Lesley could take part in its program. "Ramah has always been right for us", Dr. Yudell states, "because of the camp's philosophy of integrating recreational activities with Hebrew study and intensive Jewish experience. All her daughters and her grandchildren, old enough to do so, attended Ramah Camps.

Despite family and professional involvement, Dr. Yudell points out proudly, "Everything Jewish has been close to our hearts — always. You can bring up a family, have a profession and participated devotedly in Jewish life. You just have to work harder. It's not only possible; it's done!"

Dr. Yudell, a lifetime member of Hadassah, has participated in many Jewish communal activities. Her devotion to Judaism has carried into her work with patients. She has helped many to become affiliated with congregational life, including Holocaust victims whom she has treated.

The Jewish Theological Seminary of America trains rabbis, cantors and teachers for the Conservative community in the United States. Rabbi Nadich and Rabbi Wechsler are graduates of the Seminary, as is Cantor Lefkowitz. Many teachers in our Religious School and Sherr Institute are graduates of, or affiliated with, the Seminary. The Seminary is a leader in the development of interfaith understanding and action and is widely known for its "Eternal Light" radio broadcasts and TV programs and its sponsorship of the Jewish Museum and the Ramah Camps.
